LATE FOREIGN NEWS.

New York: So far as can now be learned the losses by the great fire will aggregate $1,250,000, of which sum Hecker's loss is $75,000.

London, August 1st.—In the Commons, last evening, the Government consented, after a long discussion, to modify Hartington's motion approving the despatch to Egypt of 5000 Indian troops, with a reserve of 1500 men, so as to leave the question of charging the cost of the expedition on Indian Finances open for future discussion.

It is stated that the Government is negotiating for the laying of a cable between Alexandria and Port Said.

The Daily news considers that England must, in common prudence, prevent Turkish troops landing in Egypt. Dilke, Under Foreign Secretary, has stated that Oron, the Russian delegate, has been ordered to rejoin the Conference of the Powers. All great powers have agreed in asking the Porte that Arabi Pasha be proclaimed a rebel.
Constantinople, August 1st.—Orders have been given to accelerate the military preparations with a view to the immediate departure of troops for Egypt.

The Conference will meet Wednesday or Thursday to receive Onou's communication explaining Russia's motives in abstaining from the deliberations of the Conference.

The Porte replying to Lord Dufferin's demand that the Sultan proclaim Arabi Pasha a rebel, states that such a proclamation can only be issued according to the exigencies of the situation, and after the arrival of the Ottoman troops in Egypt.

Alexandria, August 1st.—The state of the town is causing serious disquiet. The natives who have remained are incendiaries, and a majority of those who have returned are looters looking after their concealed plunder. It is impossible to mistake the bitterly hostile attitude of this class and of the native police.

The Khedive has despatched a native emissary to the camp of Arabi Pasha for the purpose of procuring the release of Midshipman DeChair.

Fears of the failure of the water supply have subsided.

The number of Christians who were murdered at Damahour, Tantah and Nihalia is now estimated at 550.

High authorities at Berlin assert that Russia is about to quit her passive attitude in favor of and in accordance with Gladstone's repeated declaration that England, under circumstances, would undertake the task of restoring order in Egypt.

Ismail, the late Khedive of Egypt is sumptuously quartered in Rome, with the numerous ladies of his household, and is a universal favorite. Ordinarily, distinguished people who visit the King do not go to the Vatican.
Ismail is an exception. He is at home in both places. When he visits the Pope the Swiss guards turn out, and the believer in Mohammed is welcomed by the successor of St. Peter with punctilious etiquette. Ismail is doubtless felicitating himself just now that he is a resident of Rome rather than of Alexandria.

"Girls are the only folks that have their own way every time.
Girls is of several thousand kinds, and sometimes one girl can be like several thousand girls if she wants anything. This is all I know about girls, and father says the less I know about them the better off I am."
